

“The Patience of God”
Rom. 2:1-4

I. Those who pass moral judgment on others tie a noose of judgment around their own necks (2:1).

- What is self-righteousness?

- What are some so-called “respectable sins?”

II. God’s judgment is according to moral truth (2:2-3).

- How is God’s judgment different from that of human beings?

- What is the difference between moralism and genuine Christianity?

- How can a moralist be guilty of idolatry?

III. The self-righteous moralist shows contempt for God’s judgment (2:4).

- How do people attempt to escape God’s judgment?

- How can God’s patience be misinterpreted?

- Why should we be thankful for God’s kindness?

Conclusion

Do you think you are immune from God’s judgment?

If you think this way, do you know what you are storing up?
