

“No Condemnation” Romans 8:1-4

Preparing the Way for Romans 8

- Romans 8 provides the solution to the struggle between the two natures/dispositions.
- Romans 8 and its first two words finds its roots in the previous chapters.
- Romans 8 explains the blessings associated with our relationship to Christ.

I. The believer’s relation to Christ makes freedom from the law of sin and death possible (8:1).

- Our wretchedness does not condemn us.
- As a Christian, I am not condemned because I still have a sin nature.

II. The believer’s relation to the Holy Spirit makes freedom from the law of sin and death possible (8:2).

- The Christian possesses a power superior to the power of the law of sin and death.
- The Holy Spirit works within the believer to produce the fruit of justification.

III. The believer’s relation to the atoning work of Christ (8:3-4).

- How is the law of God limited?
- What is so good about Christ’s offering for sin?
- What is the requirement of the Law (8:4)?

Conclusion/ Taking Romans 8:1-4 on to the streets of life: